

On 25 and 27 of January held in the VŠFS in Most exhibition "Explore MOSTECKO. Opening was organized by Elementary School professor Zdenek Matějček Most of the cooperation with Europe Direct. On the occasion of the exhibition visitors could see a lot of works of art with symbolic Most's landmarks and monuments, under the leadership of their teachers produced students themselves. Among the drawings and photographs of children monitored the course of the exhibition of sculptures and models of four elements, the original building is guarded by the Most municipality.

Exhibition itself was also very enriched by performance of children from all school years. After the opening speech the Director of Schools PhDr. Hana Ajmová and welcoming all visitors the presenter Christopher of the class 3.A gradually introduced single output in which children come closer to the audience in an original way places that have visited over the past months. Visitors had the opportunity to learn a lot of attractions such as the Dean's church, Holy Spirit Hospital, Castle Lake or Castle Hněvín. Pupils also shared the individual outputs, their experiences from trips and reminded the competitions which their teachers have prepared for them. Also noted the town's mining past and stressed the necessity for considerate dealing of countryside, with whom they met on the nature trail hill Ressl. Theme of the project, work on the project and the pedagogical team led Mgr. Jana Tykalova.

The whole performance was taking place in the spirit of a virtual walking history of the city, which dominated the scene, "How most's people come to horse shoes" from the time of the Hussite wars. Half-hourly performance varied children's musical accompaniment, and songs that have prepared especially for this exhibition. At the end of the performances, some of the enthusiasm audience were joined to children. Except of parents and representatives of the Europe Direct visited the exhibition a number of important guests, led by the chief magistrate Ing. Vlastimil Vozka. Exhibition "Meet Mostecko" had great resonance among the visitors and their children were properly taken them well-deserved success.